- Career storyline active (114 mentions, 18.7% of conversation)

NARRATIVE ANALYSIS:

Dominant Narrative

The dominant narrative surrounding the recent Instagram comments is one of dissatisfaction and disappointment regarding Blake Lively's portrayal of a character in an adaptation of a popular book series. The comments reveal a strong negative sentiment towards Lively, with users expressing that her casting was a poor choice that detracted from their enjoyment of the film. The phrase "Blake lively was the worst choice for lily" encapsulates this sentiment, indicating a perceived disconnect between the character's portrayal in the film and the expectations set by the original literature. This narrative is compounded by mentions of other involved entities, such as Justin Baldoni and Colleen Hoover, further amplifying the criticism directed at Lively.

Sentiment Analysis

The overall sentiment expressed in the comments is predominantly negative, with a weighted sentiment score for Blake Lively at -0.6, reflecting feelings of anger and disappointment. Multiple users explicitly blame Lively for ruining the film adaptation, as seen in the comment, "She ruined it." This sentiment is echoed by another user who critiques the decision-making of Colleen Hoover, the original author, suggesting that her choices have led to the film's shortcomings. The anger directed towards Lively and Hoover indicates that fans of the original books feel let down by the film's execution and casting decisions.

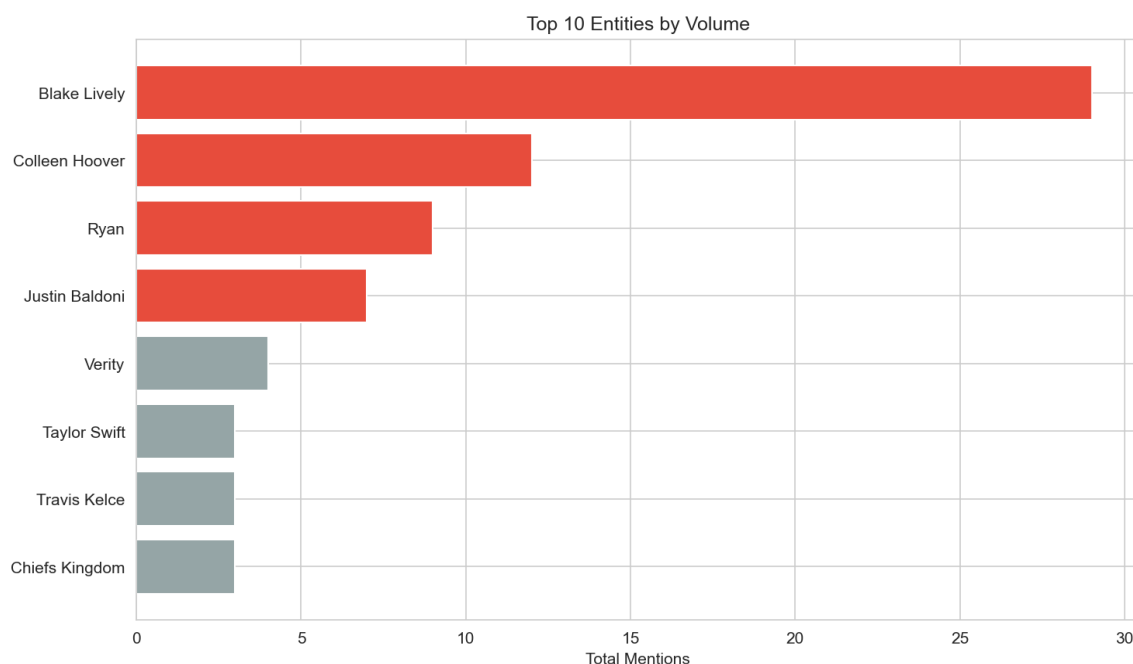

Discussion Topics

The primary focus of the comments is the adaptation of the book series and the performance of Blake Lively as the lead character. Commenters express their love for the original material, highlighting a strong emotional investment in the source content. For instance, the comment "I was so excited for the movie" indicates that the anticipation was high, which makes the subsequent disappointment more pronounced. Additionally, there is a mention of Justin Baldoni, who is seen as a reliable figure, suggesting that some users are looking for alternatives to Lively and seeking validation in other cast members.

Emerging Patterns

From the high-engagement comments, a clear pattern emerges: a strong emotional response to casting decisions in film adaptations. The comments consistently reflect themes of anger and disappointment, particularly towards actors who do not align with fans' expectations of beloved characters. The mention of Justin Baldoni as "the only one that's honest" suggests a desire for authenticity and reliability in portrayals, which is a critical factor for fans when assessing adaptations. Furthermore, the recurring critique of Colleen Hoover's choices implies that fans are not only engaged with the actors but also with the decision-makers behind the adaptation, indicating a broader conversation about
