The overwhelming sentiment is negative, particularly directed toward Blake Lively, who is perceived as an inappropriate choice for the role of Lily. Comments such as one with 4,890 likes stating, "Blake lively was the worst choice for lily anyways," encapsulate the frustration of fans who feel that the casting has marred their excitement for the film. Additionally, the mention of Justin Baldoni, who is viewed more favorably, highlights a longing among fans for a casting that aligns more closely with their expectations.

Similarly, Coleen Hoover, the author, faces backlash for what fans perceive as poor judgment in casting decisions. From the high-engagement comments, a pattern of emotional investment in the original source material emerges. Fans express not just disappointment but also a sense of anger towards both the casting choices and the individuals involved in those decisions. This emotional response is reflected in the top comments, where the sentiment against Blake Lively and Coleen Hoover is particularly pronounced.
